BACP PRESENTS “The Foreigner”

The Broken Arrow Community Playhouse is proud to present “The Foreigner” Directed by Debra Bradshaw.

This play by Larry Shue is the story of Charlie Baker, a socially phobic Englishman marooned by his friend Froggy in a Georgia fishing lodge. To avoid interactions with the other guests, Charlie pretends to be a ‘foreigner’ who does not speak English. The locals assume Charlie does not understand them, and therefore speak openly in front of him. The end results are uproarious and lead Charlie to uncover a scheme that puts him and his fellow guests in danger. “The Foreigner” won two Obie awards, as well as two Outer Critics Circle awards- Best New American Play and Best Off-Broadway Production.

Performances dates are February 10,11, 16-18 at 8:00 PM and Sunday matinee February 19, at 2:00 PM. Ticket prices are $ 12.00 adults, $ 9.00 seniors, $8.00 students, and $5.00 children 12 and younger.
